Pebble Tossers welcomes two new Board Members

(Atlanta, GA, September 30, 2020)...Pebble Tossers, Atlanta's leading youth development nonprofit organization, welcomes two new community leaders to its board of directors: Brandy Brock of Google Cloud Business Solutions and Andy Dakshina of FiServ.

"Brandy and Andy bring diverse talents and experiences to the Pebble Tossers Board, which are a vital part of the Board's success," said Rebecca Sandberg, Board President. "We look forward to the leadership and perspectives they will add to our team."

Brandy Brock

A developer of leaders in the workforce, Brandy fits right in with the Pebble Tossers mission to empower youth to lead through service. She is a strong believer in volunteerism leading to good citizenship and strong character development. Brandy is the Head of Southeast Sales for Google Cloud Business Solutions.

"I cherished my time volunteering with Big Brothers Big Sisters," said Brandy. "After 15 years, I am still in contact with my little and her family and we meet up often with our families. Volunteering is a great way to grow in confidence, empathy and understanding."

Andy Dakshina

Andy and his family are longtime Pebble Tossers members and have participated in several of our key service projects. They hold a strong belief of volunteerism as an essential part of youth and family development. They embody the Pebble Tossers mission. Andy is an Account Executive at FiServ.
